

Maintenance Mechanic

JML Optical, LLC, located on Linden Avenue in the Penfield, NY area, is recognized as being a lead engineering optical solutions provider. We develop and manufacture optical solutions that meet customer product development needs from prototype through production, particularly with customers in aerospace and defense, medical, metrology and highly engineered industrial arenas. View our website, www.jmloptical.com, to see the products that are created by our multi-talented employees.

We have an immediate opening for a skilled mechanic who will perform hands-on maintenance necessary for our manufacturing equipment to continuously run smoothly and effectively throughout production. The chosen candidate will also manage the building needs of our 70,000 square foot facility.

This is a critical role that reports directly to our Vice President of Operations, offering independent, day to day challenges along with positive recognition.

Job Expectations:

- Regularly schedule and perform preventive maintenance on company manufacturing equipment, particularly those with high tolerance capability (CNC, vacuum pumps)
- Troubleshoot and implement timely, cost-effective solutions when equipment issues surface.
- Research and purchase necessary maintenance supplies and materials in a cost-effective manner.
- Technical resource to management, employees, and outside equipment/service providers.
- Perform facility maintenance, as needed, e.g. lighting, plumbing, HVAC.
- Maintain positive rapport with employees and outside vendors.

Skills Requirements:

- Thorough understanding of mechanical, electrical, hydraulic, pneumatic equipment and systems.
- Ability to create, track, and maintain data (e.g. Syteline, Excel, Microsoft Office)
- Experience operating powered shop equipment (e.g. man lift, forklift)
- Familiarity with deep vacuum coaters, a plus.

Benefits:

JML Optical recognizes the importance of recruiting and maintaining the best talent. Therefore, we offer full-time employees an excellent benefits package and work environment, specifically:

820 Linden Avenue, Rochester, NY 14625

- Competitive pay
- Up to 3 weeks of Paid Time Off within your first year of employment
- A variety of medical plans with a generous company contribution
- Monthly lunches with our President and top management to stay connected to our business success
- A mature, inclusive workforce who value a balance of work and home life.
