

Optical Technician, Mid-Sr. Level

Pay

$25 to $32 per hour

Job description

JML Optical, LLC, located on Linden Avenue in the Penfield, NY area of Rochester, is recognized as being a lead engineering optical solutions provider, particularly to customers in the aerospace and defense, medical, metrology and highly engineered industrial arenas.

We have an immediate opening for an experienced Optical Technician interested in working either days or 2nd shift. The chosen candidate will have the background and skill to “hit the ground running” due to their previous experience fabricating optical lenses. In return, JML will be open to discuss his or her desire for specific work hours, pay range, and areas of interest within this career.

Our company is in the midst of a major positive transition in culture, which strongly encourages employee involvement, inclusion, and recognition. Therefore, this is a perfect time to become a part of our team!

Job Expectations:

- Accurately follow all manufacturing procedures according to verbal and written instructions.
- Perform grinding and polishing to a high standard using conventional and/or CNC methods.
- Independently program and run a variety of machines that grind, polish and/or center optics.
- Effectively use high-tolerance metrology tools.
- Perform cleaning and cosmetic inspection of finished product according to customer requirements.

Skills Requirements:

- Experience working as an Optical Technician or similar career.
- Math skills.
- Ability to properly interpret instructions and blueprints.
- Quality inspection capability, particularly fine detail.
- Experience running high-tolerance machines, a plus.

Benefits:

JML Optical prides itself on recruiting and maintaining its exceptional employees. Therefore, we offer an excellent pay and benefits package, along with a healthy work culture, specifically:

- Generous and flexible Paid Time Off within your first year of employment.
- A variety of Medical plans with a large company contribution.
- Monthly employee meetings with top management to stay connected to our business success.
- A mature, inclusive workforce who value a balance of work and home life.

All qualified candidates will be given confidential consideration.
